EDUCATION IS EMPOWERING

Nurturing our children's educational journey. Beyond advancing education, we celebrate our roots, honor our history, and fortify our community's foundation.

Our mission blends heritage with growth, cherishing our legacy while embracing progress. We're not just shaping local minds; we're fostering a global perspective through world-smart education that extends the reach of our roots to every corner of the globe.

Together, let's provide tools for self-awareness, confidence, and success both domestically and internationally. Join our community-driven initiative at the Spring Soiree to ensure every child thrives and embodies the warmth that defines us. Together, we build a future where history's seeds blossom into endless possibilities, connecting hearts and minds worldwide.

Class Stats

Since its establishment in 1896, Menaul School stands as a beacon of faith-based education—a dynamic, independent, coeducational, and college preparatory institution catering to students in grades 6-12. Distinguished as both a day and boarding school, Menaul takes pride in being the sole representative of its kind in Albuquerque, boasting the most diverse student population, both racially and economically, among independent schools in the region.

For over 125 years, Menaul School has been dedicated to cultivating success in mind, body, and spirit. As we continue this rich legacy, our commitment to preparing students for triumph resonates stronger than ever.

Your support plays a crucial role in guaranteeing access to quality education for everyone.

Each contribution of business support not only enhances the visibility of your brand positively but also opens doors to a globally-minded education at Menaul School for promising students. We extend an invitation for you to highlight your company and community backing by becoming a sponsor for our aspiring young learners—choose a sponsorship level that aligns with your needs and budget.
